Anti- Corruption Commission Seychelles (ACCS) with ASP staffs

20th Sept 2021

Minister of Employment and Social Affairs Patricia Francourt launched a series of training being undertaken in collaboration with the Anti- Corruption Commission Seychelles (ACCS) for the staffs of the Ministry on 20thSeptember 2021. ACCS will be conducting the sessions with all staffs of the entire Ministry so they better understand about the risks, impact and ways in which corruption practices can be prevented. The sessions started with Social Affairs Department in the beginning of September, followed by Agency for Social Protection on 20thSeptember. Next sessions will be conducted with staffs of the Employment Department in the month of October.

The same day the Agency for Social Protection (ASP) presented its first Standards Operating Procedure for welfare applications through a half day training with staffs.
